Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burghart and Miss Bertha Reed visited with Mrs. Mary Burghart Sunday.

Ed Brasher and Miss Lousa Burghart attended a Sunday school picnic at Mound Valley Wednesday of last week.

SURPRISE—Last Saturday evening by seven o'clock, many guests had assembled at the residence of J. R. Lee, who was greatly surprised to find that so many of his relatives, friends and neighbors had come to his place of abode, and he said unto his wife, "What meaneth this great throng of souls that doth invade our home?" and his wife said unto him, "They are pilgrims who are journeying the same road whither we are going (to old age) and are here tonight to communicate the event of them having reached the 50th mile stone in thy years of travel—life. But hasten and attend thyself in thy best robes." And he did as was commanded, and said, "I am happy to welcome you hither; ye have come at an hour when not expected, but tarry and sup with us." Then he said unto his wife, "Tell me whether we shall buy bread and fishes for these souls, for they are many." And she said unto him, "Fear thou not for the Lord help those who help themselves." So he commanded them to sit down, and were served to a most bountiful repast, of which all ate to their heart's content. And when they were all filled, there yet remained much provisions untouched. After the repast they returned to other rooms and chatted friends with neighbors on topics of interest; during all this, time was flying that carries us on from year to year, until our attention is called to note particularly its rapid flight. But the old kitchen clock took note of the passing hours and tolled off the hour of midnight, when we prepared to depart, wishing our host many long years of happy, prosperous, useful life.—A Guest.

Shaw.

Tuesday, August 3.—Ed Eckley, Jno Haviland and John Guss were the delegates elected to attend the republican convention at Erie last Monday. Ed Eckley was unable to attend on account of the serious illness of his father, which was somewhat of a disappointment to many of his political friends.

Alva Roads and family moved into the house built and formerly occupied by Lyle Rice last Monday.

William Beamer shipped a mixed car load of cattle and hogs to the Kansas City market last Tuesday.

Misses Mable and Ella Allen attended the Christian church convention at Erie a few days the latter part of last week.

Lyle Rice and family moved to Central Missouri the fore part of the week. He is an industrious and energetic citizen wherever he may be, and we regret the loss of all such people from this vicinity.

The nominees of the republican county convention are universally satisfactory to the people in this neck of the woods. The ticket from one end to the other is a good one and will poll its full vote in this precinct without mar or blemish.

Last week there were ten car loads of farm products consisting of hay, corn, oats and wheat shipped from this point. That has been about the average week's shipment from this point since the harvest commenced. This is a pretty good showing for our prosperous village.

Oscar Collins and A. M. Spears are working in partnership at blacksmithing and general repairing. They can be found at the shop heretofore run by Mr. Spears where all work entrusted to their care will receive prompt attention. Their popularity as good mechanics, reliability in their dealings will insure them a good trade.

A much needed improvement in the appearance of the Shaw cemetery was made last Thursday by the Patriarchs of America and others interested, by mowing and burning the grass and weeds and other improvements. It should now be enclosed with a substantial fence for further protection and to prevent the depredations of stock running at large.

What to adopt as the next visionary scheme with which to work on the passions and prejudices of men and to catch votes, is now agitating the minds of some of the great horde of the disgruntled politicians and disappointed office seekers of the pop party. All of their fads thus far, from government corn cribs, sub treasury schemes and the unlimited issue of greenbacks to the exploded 16 to 1 theory have proven to be unpopular, unreasonable, and some of them absolutely dishonest. If they want to trot out anything tangible, practical and beneficial, they will have to rob the republican party of some of its principles to get it. The trouble with them is that their stock of ammunition is about exhausted in squibs, and there are not enough offices left to go around.

There is a time for everything, and the time to attend to a cold is when it starts. Don't wait till you have consumption, but prevent it by using One Minute Cough Cure, the great remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.—Boschert & Williams.
